TELEGRAPHIC.

(By Special Telegram.)

OTTAWA, April 24.—The last scene in the history of the Hon. Thos. White was enacted to-day here and at Montreal.

The remains were taken by special train to Montreal, accompanied by nearly all the members of the Cabinet and Senate, including all the members from Manitoba and the Northwest.

Judge Henry has suffered a relapse, and is not expected to recover.

Sir Chas. Tupper has received a letter from Acting Secretary Thompson of the Treasury Department, Washington, stating that hereafter thoroughbred Canadian cattle for breeding purposes can be imported into the United States duty free.

The steamship Siberian arrived at Halifax to-day with over 800 immigrants mostly for the Northwest.

MONTREAL, April 25.—Never since the day of D'Arcy McGee's funeral has Montreal seen such a gathering as assembled to-day at the funeral of the late Hon. Thos. White.

OTTAWA, April 25.—There was an animated discussion in the Commons to-day on Gordon's motion for the papers of the Behring Sea question.

Prior delivered his maiden speech, and created a very favorable impression.

Sir John, in reply to Mr. D. W. Davis, said the Government were considering the advisability of changing the mounted police headquarters from Fort Saskatchewan to Edmonton.

OTTAWA, April 22.—The Hon. Thos. White died at his residence at 21:45 on Saturday. About 10 o'clock Dr. Horsey informed Mr. White there was no hope for his recovery, and the dying statesman said he was resigned to his fate. Members of the family did not anticipate the end was so near; as Mr. White felt the end drawing near he hid each of his dear ones farewell, commencing with his wife. His death is a national calamity. He leaves a widow and ten children.

The venerable Premier was completely prostrated at the news of Mr. White's demise. At the opening of the House to-morrow he will move an adjournment.

OTTAWA, April 23.—In the House, this afternoon, after the routine, Sir John rose to move an adjournment as a tribute to the late Hon. Thos. White, then followed a scene so pathetic and touching, that words can but feebly convey a picture of what it really was like, to those who did not see it. As the Premier rose, from the press gallery just above his head, it was noticed that his lips quivered and the muscles of his face moved nervously, as he lifted his eyes to speak, he opened his lips to say "My Speaker," but the words never came, tears stood in his eyes and were already in streams running down his cheeks, he placed one hand on his mouth to choke the emotion but his grief was too great and he burst into a flood of tears. He was not alone in this outburst of grief, there was scarcely a dry eye in the House. Sir John, realizing his inability to speak, touched Sir Hector Langevin's arm and, sitting down, buried his face in his handkerchief.

Sir Hector rose and moved an adjournment of the House until Wednesday at 3 o'clock, and made a very appropriate and affecting speech. The Hon. Mr. Laurier rose and seconded the motion and also made a very affecting speech. He said the House had lost one of their ablest statesmen and sympathized with the Premier in his bereavement.

It may be stated, on Thursday or Friday last while delirious he repeatedly called for his private secretary, and asked "any news from the Northwest?" Are the Indians all quiet and serene? The last words he spoke were "for the last time." It is understood his life was insured for about $20,000.

The name of Mr. Dewdney is greatly canvassed among the members as likely to get the Interior portfolio.

MONTREAL, April 25.—General Dumont gave a lecture at the Mount Hotel to-night and drew a pretty full house, among whom were Judge Caron, Mr. Laurier and other notables.

Unrestricted Reciprocity may be of incalculable advantage to Canada as it may be a mere "fad" as its opponents call it, but no one can deny the Nasal Balan, has done more for suffering from catarrh than any other remedy known. Mr. Thos. Roche, Rochester, Ont., says: I have suffered several from catarrh, and never got any relief until I tried Nasal Balan. I never thought I could find so sure a cure. It is a pity all afflicted with catarrh do not know of and use this wonderful medicine.

Johnson's, Valentine's and Lobbs's Extract of Meat at Clark's Drug Store.

Mr. Steele, senior member of the firm of Steele Bros. & Co., travelled through greater portion of the Northwest last year to investigate for himself the most suitable kinds of seeds for this country and being a man of varied experience in the production of seeds in the different countries and their transplantation from one climate to another, he can assure all gardeners that purchase seeds procured from his firm of their adaptability to the climate of the Saskatchewan district.

Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup at Clark's Drug Store.

On Friday evening last the members of the Prince Albert Cricket Club held meeting for the purpose of organizing the coming season. The financial statement was read showing a small balance on hand. The election of officers followed, with the following result: President, Hon. L. Clarke; Vice-President, G. D. Northrup; Sec.-Treas., J. H. Hanks; Captain, and Agew Committee of Management, K. H. Way, Hinkley, T. Facker, A. Agnew and J. Starforth. The regular time for practice will be Wednesday and Friday evening. All members and others intending to join are requested to attend the first match of the season between the club and police will be arranged for the 24th of May.

CHURCH CONCERT.

The leading musical event of the season was the concert which took place in St. Albert's Church on the 26th inst. Long before the time for commencing the programme the church was filled to its utmost capacity, by an select and appreciative audience as ever assembled in Prince Albert. Several of the pieces on the programme were omitted owing to the illness, or inability, of some of the performers to be present. All the ladies and gentlemen who took part acquitted themselves worthily of professionals.

The first piece, "Gloria," in which Misses McLean and F. Mair and Messrs. Jones, Johnson and Parker took part was exceedingly well rendered and was deservedly encored, but not responded to. We cannot avoid mentioning how agreeably surprised every one was at the way in which Misses McLean and Fanny Mair acquitted themselves; they have good powerful voices and we hope to hear them in solos in the near future. Mr. Jones next sang in his familiar style, "Yes, Let me like a Soldier fall," and as an encore "The Pilgrim of Love," both of which were well received. The pianoforte duet by Miss F. Mair and Mr. Cann was brilliantly executed and received a hearty encore, which was not responded to for the same piece was repeated in the second part of the programme to fill a vacancy. Mrs. Sprout next favored the audience with a solo, "Would I were with thee," which was rendered in a manner of which only she, in Prince Albert, is capable; to an encore, Mrs. Sprout, in a most beautiful manner, sang "Home Sweet Home." Where every one did well it might be invidious to particularize but we must say the last piece was the best rendered of the programme.

"The Village Blacksmith" by Mr. Johnson, was sung in his usual masterly style and received a well deserved encore which was responded to. Mr. Cann's pianoforte solo was well performed, as the mere mention of his name in connection with that instrument would warrant us in assuming. A duet, "On the Field of Glory," by Messrs Jones and Johnson and a quartette "Choral March" by Messrs Cann, Jones, Johnson and Parker were well rendered and both pieces received a well merited encore. We must not omit to mention the orchestra, which was one of the most important features of the entertainment; it was composed of the following gentlemen: Cann, piano; St. Louis, cornet; Way and Sprout, violin; Fish, bass viol and Davison snare drum. During the evening they played two selections in a most creditable manner; altogether the concert was one of the best musical treats ever given here and we are glad to learn that it was also a success financially, the receipts being over $60. Great credit is due to Mr. Cann, who was mainly instrumental in getting up this concert and who contributed largely to its success.

OTTAWA, April 22.

The supplementary estimates for the current fiscal year ending 30th June, were brought down to day. The amount to be voted is $179,500 for the amount. Among the Northwest expenditures we copy the following: Regina jail and lunatic asylum, re-vote of $4,450; Regina Court house $720 and N.W.M.P. buildings $27,000; North Saskatchewan river $6,000; to complete bridge across Bow river at Calgary $650; telegraph line between Battleford and Edmonton via Fort Pitt $650; telegraph line between Clark's Crossing and Prince Albert, including deviations to Stobart and Batche, repaving etc., $6,000; a grant in aid of St. Albert mission $200; an increase in Hayter Reid's salary of $400; an additional grant of $30 per head for each of 50 pupils at St. Albert Institute, $1,500; salary of teacher of Indian school at Islela Creek, $300.

Winnipeg, April 22.—The Saskatchewan directory, McPhillips', is in the hands of the binder and will be forwarded out next week.

Emigration is very large this week. The Allan are sending three steamers to the St. Lawrence. The Dominion two and the Beaver Line one, all full, in all about 5,000 people.

BELLEVILLE, April 25.—The Emperor passed a good night and his condition is satisfactory to the physicians. Queen Victoria visited the Emperor's sick room this morning.
